

Social wellbeing in modular housing: Co-creating design and social programming recommendations and activations to nurture health and social support for vulnerable people.

Phases of the work

The following diagram consolidates the different stages of the Social Lab. The Social Lab will take place over the course of a year and a half.

